At the intersection of Faith and Learning...

counterpoint from where we were to what is still to come. Perhaps more than anything however, they swirl remembrances to times well lived with people who moved in and out of our lives on a daily basis.

A yearbook – a collection of memories for a community – serves us as an emblem to a year in our lives. For some, the memories will be tinged with tears; for many, they will be bursting with laughter. I'm sure you'll enjoy leafing through these pages today, next week, even next month. But the flood will really happen five and ten and twenty years from now. I hope you'll enjoy these memories now and reflect on them as you journey ahead.

Who said Frosh Week was all about the Frosh? The 04-05 Student Leadership Team made up of RA's, the Ministry Team, Student Council and Community Service leaders perhaps had just as much fun as the frosh, and dare I say it: but could they have had more? Before the year had begun for most students the leadership team had already been working hard (and playing hard) with RA's preparing their dorms for the incoming Frosh and a leadership retreat up to Pine Orchard. Here are some snapshots of the team.

WHAT A YEAR! I THINK BACK TO BEING A FROSH AND WONDER HOW IN THE WORLD I ENDED UP HERE FOUR YEARS LATER. I SORT OF HAVE THIS RUNNING JOKE WITH A RETIRED MECHANIC AT CAMP. LET ME EXPLAIN. THE WEEK BEFORE I CAME TO TYNDALE TO BE A FROSH I TOLD MY MECHANIC FRIEND THAT I WOULD MOST CERTAINLY BE THERE FOR ONLY ONE YEAR. ALAS, WHENEVER I SEE HIM AFTER AN EXTENDED PERIOD OF ABSENCE THESE DAYS HIS FIRST QUESTION IS ALWAYS. 'SO ONLY ONE YEAR EH"? IT IS AMAZING

TO THINK HOW GOD USES ONE MOMENT IN TIME TO PREPARE YOU FOR THE NEXT PORTION OF YOUR LIFE. I CAN'T THINK OF ANY OTHER PLACE I WOULD HAVE RATHER BEEN THIS YEAR THAN AT TYNDALE; BEING INVOLVED IN MAKING OUR SCHOOL A SAFE PLACE TO GROW, BE CHALLENGED, AND EXPERIENCE LIFE TOGETHER.

IT HAS BEEN A PLEASURE SERVING THE SCHOOL THROUGH THE STUDENTS ASSOCIATION THIS YEAR. WITH THE GREAT TEAM I HAD TO WORK WITH IT MADE THE JOB ENJOYABLE, ALWAYS INTERESTING AND ALLOWED FOR SOME GREAT TANGENTS DURING EACH ONE OF OUR MEETINGS. THANK YOU: DARRYL FOR YOUR CREATIVITY AND EXCITEMENT ABOUT THINKING BIGGER. MICHELLE FOR BEING OUR MOM. ANDREW FOR BEING PATIENT WITH ME AND FOR KEEPING US OUT OF JAIL. DANIELLE FOR YOUR PASSION FOR MUSIC, COFFEE AND ART. SARAH FOR ALL THOSE EXTRA DETAILS YOU TOOK GREAT CARE OF AND FOR BEING SO PASSIONATE ABOUT ANIMALS. NATHAN, FOR KEEPING SPORTS (AND OUR MEETINGS) FUN. THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR COUNTLESS HOURS OF WORK THAT STUDENTS DON'T SEE. ALSO, THANK YOU GEORGE FOR YOUR ENCOURAGEMENT, WISDOM AND FOR LISTENING; YOUR INVOLVEMENT WITH US AND THE STUDENT BODY IS INVALUABLE. THANK YOU APRIL FOR YOUR DILIGENT WORK ON THE YEARBOOK AND NATHAN C. FOR REVOLUTIONIZING THE STUDENT PUBLICATION. THANK YOU R.A'S AND MINISTRY TEAM FOR THE CHANCE TO SHARE IN STUDENT LEADERSHIP WITH YOU.

THIS IS WHAT THE LORD SAYS, "LET NOT THE WISE MAN BOAST OF HIS WISDOM, OR THE STRONG MAN BOAST OF HIS STRENGTH OR THE RICH MAN BOAST OF HIS RICHES BUT LET HIM WHO BOASTS BOAST ABOUT THIS: THAT HE UNDERSTANDS AND KNOWS ME, THAT I AM THE LORD WHO EXERCISES KINDNESS, JUSTICE AND RIGHTEOUSNESS UPON THE EARTH, FOR IN THESE I DELIGHT," DECLARES THE LORD. -JEREMIAH 9:23- 24

TALENT SHOW 2004

This years talent show brought out talent that has never been witnessed before. The red carpet was rolled out and the cotton candy machine was at full blast (with smoke and all). The audience sat mesmerized by the talent displayed with such acts as singing, dancing, lipsinging and poem reading. Funny man Pat Sulavan and his trio of judges brought us through a whirlwind ride as we enjoyed the incredible talent Tyndale has to offer. To commemorate some of the talent here is Tyndale's very own page of fame.

Al Hounsel

Ah, the ministry team. What a year, amen? I am pleased to give brief synopsis of some of the enjoyable times we have had in ministry this past year. Those involved in the ministry team got to take part in many events in prayer, cells, evangelism, and missions.

Prayer/Cells were led by Nyssa Dhillon, and she really took them to a new level. Many were blessed by their involvement in cell groups throughout the year and involvement in prayer events was greatly attended this year with many taking part in intercession teams, corporate prayer meetings, prophetic activation and prayer seminars. Good job, Nyssa! (Nyssa's Dad even led one of our seminars. Good job, Nyssa's Dad!)

Evangelism was another area that was increased this past year. Alicia Aukema led the evangelism team and not only continued our street-run ministry thrust to the homeless of Toronto, but started a new ministry: sketchboarding. This ministry saw a number of people come to faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and was a whole lot of fun! Going downtown and speaking the word of God to individuals through exciting and new media – what can be better than that? Super-duper, Alicia!

Missions also were expanded this year as teams went to locations completely new to Tyndale: Trinidad and Thailand. After speaking with team leader Sharon Kamau upon her return from Thailand I was pleased to hear that both trips were huge successes. A number of individuals came to faith, churches were strengthened and lives were changed. Way to go, Sharon!

Well, that's all. I hope that the Tyndale community, Toronto, and the nations have truly been blessed by the ministry team as we have sought to "foster a heart within Tyndale that is wildly in love with Jesus and burning with love for a lost world!" See you next year, and be sure to check out our website at www.tyndale.ca/~ministryteam!

TRINIDAD

Well after three and a half weeks in Trinidad, we ourselves sitting on a plane on our way home. It was a bittersweet time for entire team As OUL much as we were all excited to get home and be with family and friends it was hard to say goodbye to those that made their way lives from into our Trinidad Our time in Trinidad can't be explained in anything less a m

The experience stretched and pushed each team member out of their comfort zones and through that we each experienced much growth. Growth in our spiritual maturity, growth in our life experience, and arowth of our ministry skills. We made friends we will never forget and memories that will last lifetime.

Thailand

Mid year, a small but intrepid group of Tyndale College and University students (and Two seminary students) - lead by the Missions Coordinator, Sharon Kamau, began to pray and seek God's heart and mind regarding an opportunity to teach English in Thailand, Dave Roberts, the Missions Mentor (under a pilot program at Tyndale) coached us and God began to convict, to enable, to equip and to love us towards" Tyndale in Thailand" (TNT for short). While our group numbered 11 we sought the Holy Spirit to be our twelfth member to unite us and to build us into a community of His love. HE DID IT!

After 27 days in Thailand, we were sisters - April, Joan, Lory, Michelle, Sharon, Sheena, Vanessa, and brothers - Joshua, Ken, Spencer, Trevor: just a microcosm - but a healthy microcosm of God's immense family, joining others from his family, in Thailand, God. planted seeds through us, he watered and fed existing seeds. and we celebrated, seeing a harvest of new life. We celebrated with, On, Nita, Nurze, Pot, Ajon Mongkon Pi Lo, and many other new friends. It was a blast -Tookata style, it was real and we praise the Jesus. Ken Park, grateful co-leader

Worship Worship

My experience as Tyndale's Chapel Coordinator was one of the most important experiences I have ever had. It began as a simple suggestion from a close friend and quickly materialized into wonderful reality. At the end of my first year at Tyndale I was unsure of God's path for me. I had loved my experience as a first year student but was hesitant to return for another. Shortly before the end of second semester I felt that God was calling me to remain at Tyndale, but as usual I was confused as to His plan. Before leaving for summer work my close friend Jason Locke, suggested that I apply for the newly vacant position as Chapel Coordinator. Unsure of myself and full of doubt I trusted his advice and proceeded to put in an application. The summer came and went and with the ending of that season came a new challenge in my life. I was hired as Tyndale's Chapel Coordinator and was to assume my role as soon as school started. Despite my reluctant attitude I quickly immersed myself in the position and began to lead Chapel Worship at Tyndale.

As the year progressed I had the privilege of creating two distinct and talented student worship teams. Each possessed unique musical and spiritual talent that facilitated a deepening in the spiritual atmosphere at Tyndale. I was also fortunate enough to play a role in Tyndale's magnificent Christmas Chapel which is a source of blessing every year.

My position at Tyndale as Chapel Coordinator allowed to me develop and sharpen skills that I did not even realize were within me but once recognized I was able to use them to better glorify God. I am thankful that He carried me throughout the year and taught me so many incredible lessons. He was then as He continues to be, my source of strength and of hope.

Sing to the CORD a new song:
Sing to the CORD, all the earth.
Sing to the CORD, bless His name:
Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.
Tell of His glory among the nations.
His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.
For great is the CORD and greatly to be praised:
He is to be feared above all gods.
For all the gods of the peoples are idols.
But the CORD made the heavens.
Splendor and majesty are before Him.
Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

SOME HIGHLIGHTS...

Basketball Basketball

Tyndale reaches 100

What can we say...our team dominates the boards

This year was an exciting year for the Tyndale Men's basketball team. We started out with an energetic game versus the Redeemer varsity (OCAA) team that we narrowly lost. The team grouped together and lost only a single regular season game all year, and then went undefeated on the way to a second consecutive league championship.

Mike MacKneer was named the league and playoff MVP, also Mike and Kyle Pitman were named league all-stars. Highlights included our trip to Binghamton, NY to play Davis College, as well as our energetic, enthusiastic, and sarcastic fans. Justin Newman, Luke Haggett, Howard Nanes, Mike and Kyle were the starting five for most of the season, and did an excellent job setting the tone for the game that would be matched by the rest of the players. Brian Smith was a whirling dervish of energy as the sixth man, and Jonathan Gordon went from a player who barely made the team to someone who could be counted on to be a starter if necessary and was awarded the

The team has the goal of playing up to the level of the OCAA so that Tyndale can integrate into that league soon, but more importantly looks forward to the best fan support out there once again next year!

Most Improved Player award.

Volleybal

I've never had so much fun playing sports. This year was a success by far, and our championship banner was barely the reason. Winning is fun, of course, but sweating, pushups, leapfrogs, bible studies, Burger King and spontaneous dodgeball made for a year of volleyball that was unforgettable. Spending as much time as we did together, the fourteen of us grew together more than just a team that was able to take on OCAA teams. We grew together in Christ, in our friendships and of course every time a new pair of shoes was added to the team we grew one step closer to Olympic level. I loved every minute of playing with this team. Most of the friendships extended far beyond the court and I'm sure you'll be seeing most of the team back next year. Tyndale men's volleyball team of 2004-05 was by far the most united, good sportsmanship and skilled volleyball team that Tyndale has probably ever seen, well at least that I have ever seen at Tyndale.

Flipping through pictures of my childhood I came to realize how different I am now. Obviously my appearance has changed and I've grown out of horrible phases...baby food, the bowl cut and plaid (what was I thinking). However, even looking back to this past year I can see how much I've grown. Moving into my own apartment, growing in friendships and going on a missions trip to Thailand are only a few things which have forced me to expand my paradigm (Amanda that's for you). As excited as I am for the future and all the big things God has planned for me (even though those big plans are a mystery to me) I thank God for this past year at Tyndale. As you look through these pages and recall memories from the year just past, my hope is that you have NO regrets. But that you are able to appreciate that God brought you through another year to have you continue growing on this crazy journey we call life.

So for those who are coming back for another year I pray God will continue to grow you in this environment. For those graduating or just moving on I know the adventure will continue to be exciting and full of purpose.

Peace out brotha's and sista's...check ya out on the flip side!
